To the Democrats of New Jersey.

The State election having resulted adversely to the democratic party, it is our duty to go into the ensuing contest with a full knowl- Trade." edge both of our weakness and our strength, guarding the one and girding up the other .-If we have been beaten upon the national issues between our adversaries and ourselves, we may as well retire from the contest; but if

We assert, then, that in the recent extraordinary election for Governor, not one of the principles between the two parties can be said to have been met or decided. From the moment of the nomination of the democratic candidate, our opponents dropped all the old issue-the Bank-the assumption of State debts -the distribution scheme-Oregon and Texas, with a promptness and unanimity clearly bespeaking their utter want of confidence in their potency. Abandoning these they raised the cry of anti-monopoly! railroad influence! beware of Captain Stockton! he means to secure a corrupt chancellor, impure judges and perjured law officers! he means to rob the State-cheat her of her income-palm off the canal upon her! And every speaker and press sent forth a cry of imminent danger from the joint companies.

Grave senators, candidates for judgeships, and the entire band of office holders and seekers traversed the state night and day, circulating the grossest misrepresentations; thousands of pamphlets filled with the vilest slanders lic lands in one hand, and in the other a gicast over the state, all aimed at our candidate, his private character, his family connections, seen by the more experienced of the party, the timid faltered and the weak gave way; the doubtful became certain, and many of the certain for us previous to the nomination became doubtful. The ballot boxes opened, and after two days of unyielding strife, on the part of the true and staunch democracy, our cancounties and was beaten. It was the defeat of the man and not of the party-nor of the principles of the party. The great democratic truths we advocate, and which are ascribed upon the banner of Polk and Dallas, were not passed upon in the contest.

Indeed the democratic issues have gained strength by the course of our adversaries .-They have urged the people every where to go against all monopolies; and no monopoly

The ar-November the issue cannot be dodged. The present, and the vote stood people must go for the impure and immoral Clay, for a monopoly bank, for two hundred millions of public debts, for plundering the national treasury by distribution, for British dominion over Oregon and Texas, or they must go against them. They are all wrapt up in the federal electoral ticket. All must be swallowed or none.

We do not doubt the intelligence and patriotsm of our fellow-citizens-a majority of them never have gone for Mr. Clay, and all the evils that follow in his train-and they never will. We have much to encourage us. Upon principle the people are democratic .-We say, then, to our friends throughout the State, increase your vigilance and exertionslet the strife be to swell the number of democratic voters-cease not to work until every ballot is polled. Do this, and we shall have the pleasure of knowing that a state which can elect a minority Governor, may nevertheless give a good round majority for Polk, Dallas and Democracy.

Captain Stockton then proceeds to other subjects more immediately connected with the welfare of the people, which he treats boldly and eloquently. On the subject of protection and revenue, he speaks as follows:

"But there are other questions of momentous interest, affecting the domestic welfare and pursuits of the people. Those are chiefly such as relate to the question of protection and revenue, incidental to the imposition of duties on imports. The broad national ground assumed by the Democratic party on these subjects, is the only ground on which the American statesman can place himself, justly and securely. Mr. Polk maintains that while we must provide sufficient revenue for the purposes of government by indirect taxation upon the consumption of foreign products, that taxation should be so adjusted and levied, as to extend all the protection to American production, which the nature and circumstances of the case render practicable. PROSPECTUS

-Our Country, Liberty, and God DAVID FULTON, Editor TERMS .-- $2 50 if paid in advance; $3 00 at the end of three months; $3 50 at the expiration of the year .-- No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publishers.

Having been induced, at the solicitation of some of the members of the Democratic party, to take charge of the Republican Press in this place, we will hereafter, on every Friday morning, issue a Democratic paper, under the above title, at the office of the late " Wilmington Messenger," in the Town of Wilmington.

As we have given a brief outline of the principles the " Journal" will advocate in our first number, we think it unnecessary again to reiterate the political doctrines it will be our constant and earnest endeavor to inculcate. On the present occasion, therefore, we will merely state, that the "Journal" will be the uncompromising opponent of each and every "link" in the whole of the "great chain" of Whig measures-a United States Bank-a Protective Tariff-the Bankrupt Act-Internal Improvements by the General Government, &c., &c .- While on the other hand it will, so far as our humble abilities will enable us, be the firm friend and supporter of the Constitution as it was left us by our fathers; and of a strict construction of that Constitution, thereby ensuring the rights of the several States which compose the Confederacy. But we set out with the idea of not going into details. It would be a needless tax upon the reader's time. Suffice it to say, that the "Journal" will be a Democratic PAPER, and will always advocate Democratic men and Democratic measures.

Although the "Journal" will be a political paper, yet, in order that it may also be agreeable to the general reader, its columns w'll always he open to such ite. is of intelligence as will be interesting to the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, &c. Agriculture, Trade, the state of the Markets, &c., together with a slight glance at polite literature occasionally, will receive our attention. We hope we will not be considered too "personal in our remarks" when we offer a few suggestions to our friends touching the necessity there exists for keeping on foot a Democratic Press in the Town of Wilmington.

In the first place, Wilmington is a place of the greatest commercial importance of any in the State: it is situated in a Democratic District: there is a great deal of intercourse carried on by the citizens of the lower portion of the State with this place, and consequently a Press here would be calculated to do as much good, in diffusing information, as perhaps at any other point in the State. Again, there are, we believe, three Federal to every one Democratic paper in the State, and this we feel confident, is the reason why North Carolina placed a Whig in her Gubernatorial Chair at our recent election: for we feel assured that it only requires a fair comparison to be instituted between the policy of the Federal and Democratic parties to ensure for the latter the most triumphant success. Well now, it is impossible for a Press to be kept up unless our friends will patronize it by subscribing themselves and inducing others to "go and do likewise." For, gentle reader, we suppose you are aware, and if you are not, we will tell you, that Printers and Editors are so far like other mortals that it requires something more than air to feed and kind wishes to clothe them. Therefore, we hope that every Democrat into whose hands this Prospectus may fall, will do all he can to insure the success of the "Journal" and the cause of Democracy.
